General Conditions – please read carefully

This Application does not automatically guarantee the participation to Skate Academy until we receive the full payment on our bank account. Based on the information received through the application, the organizers will form the training groups. Therefore we ask you to provide accurate information. Changes in the time schedule and groups division can be made only by the coaching staff of the camp. Applicants will receive the detailed time schedule per email prior to the beginning of the camp. The Skate Academy reserves the right to make changes to the coach's staff and/or to the course content.

Applying for Choreography and/or additional Technique lessons does not automatically guarantee the possibility of having all the requested lessons. Depending on the number of applications, the number of hours reserved for Choreography/ additional Technique can vary. All applicants for Choreography and additional Technique lessons will be informed before beginning of Skate Academy – Summer Camp 2010 about this matter. All payments for the reserved Choreography and additional Technique lessons have to be made before the start of the camp, with no banking costs for the receiver; otherwise we reserve the right to cancel the reserved lessons. You will receive all necessary information concerning the awarded lessons, the corresponding invoice and payment formalities after we receive your Application form.

Depending on the amount of requests, some group lessons may overlap with eventually awarded private choreography or technique lessons. We will do our best to find a replacement possibility for those group lessons, but no guarantee can be offered in such cases.

The organizers and coaches deny any injury liability. Participants must provide their own insurance. The organization is not responsible for damages caused by the Skate Academy participants to a third party. Participants will be responsible for any damage caused to third party and will cover any costs due by the damages caused.

Please provide your own cancellation insurance. No refund is possible.
